A MEMBER OF OUR BOARD OF TRUSTEES WRITES

Lookout Mt., Tennessee, October 10th, 1944.

Dear Dr. Rudd:

You ask for a word which prompts my interest in Bryan University. The answer is simple to me. First, this college was born as the result of the Dayton Trial. This work was God's answer and reproof to the words which men had spoken against God and His Word and therefore it was His will to establish a work where "God is above all," a beacon light of Christian Education.

Second, once the college was in operation, its platform was true to the Lord as to its existence and maintenance. Hidden in its charming surrounding, the work has grown and educated its students, not only according to accepted academic standards, but also undergirding this work with prayer and with dynamic Bible teaching through men who were peers in this field. Consequently, students of Bryan have received instruction in righteousness which has brought a testimony to His wonderful name.

Why not be honest about the present outlook for Bryan? If Bryan is to survive, God's people must help. The world is most generous towards its educational institutions with its wealth. Why should Christians fail when such education is so needed. Luxuries are not expected nor wanted, but necessities for adequate housing and classrooms are badly needed. "God is faithful." "Faithful is He that called you who will also do it."

Through His loving kindness,

Mrs. Mark H. Senter.

UNIVERSITY PRINT SHOP

Pictured is the print shop, department of the University from which NEWSETTE, as well as many other items of school literature and forms, comes. From the stock shelves paper goes to the press with its Kluge automatic feeder, emerging as the familiar NEWSETTE. It is then folded on the speedily folder, addressed by Addressograph, sorted, tied, and mailed. The present equipment, added item by item since NEWSETTE first began as a mimeographed sheet, makes possible the present monthly production of nearly ten thousand copies at a considerable saving of time over the old methods used in the earlier days of NEWSETTE's history. Print shop workers, both staff and students, have a keen appreciation for every machine. As NEWSETTE increased from its initial issue of forty-five copies in 1935, it seemed that every time the growth in the mailing list threatened to make the task too big for the number of hands available to do it, the Lord made possible the acquisition of the labor-saving machine to save the day.

BUILDING FUND REPORT IN MARCH

We hope to be able to present to our friends in the March issue of NEWSETTE a building fund report, and further information as to plans. Watch for this.
RESPONSE

In the January issue, this column carried a letter from H. H. Rhule, offering $200.00 for the building fund if 20 persons would agree to do the same thing. Here is a response to that challenge:

"Referring to the offer in first column of page 2 of NEWSETTE for January, 1945, I will give a like sum when you get the other eighteen. When you do, let me know, and I will send check. (D. V.)"

GIFTS TO UNIVERSITY
TAX FREE

A letter dated February 20, 1941, to President Judson A. Rudd from the office of the Commissioner of Internal Revenue definitely states that the University is exempt from the payment of Federal income tax. It further states that:

"Contributions made to you are deductible by the donors in arriving at their taxable net income in the manner and to the extent provided by the Internal Revenue Code and corresponding provisions of prior revenue acts.

In addition:
Bequests, legacies, devises or transfers, to or for your use are deductible in arriving at the value of the net estate of a decedent for estate tax purposes... to the extent provided by... the Code.

It is, according to the same letter, true that Gifts of property... are deductible in computing net gifts for gift tax purposes in accordance with the Code.

This information will be of value to those on whose hearts the Lord has laid the ministry of financial help to the University.

SHALL WE EXPECT YOU?

"A story is told of a certain pastor who mourned over a member of his congregation, once a regular attendant at the prayer service, who for months had not been seen in the 'upper room.' Unable to stand it longer, at the close of one of the meetings, in which the voice formerly accustomed to lead in prayer, was sorely missed, the minister went straight to the man's home and found him sitting before an open fire. The absentee, somewhat startled by the intrusion, hastily placed another chair for his visitor and then waited for the expected words of rebuke. Had the rebuke been spoken, no one knows what the reply might have been, or what mistaken, yet lasting anger might have been kindled. But not a word did the minister say. Taking his seat before the fire, he silently took the tongs and lifting a glowing coal from the midst of its fellows, laid it by itself upon the hearthstone. Remaining painfully silent, he watched the blaze die out. Then the other opened his lips to say: 'You needn't say a single word, sir. I'll be there next Wednesday night.'"

THE MISSIONARY'S BURDEN

It isn't the work that wears us,
At least not what we do;
But that which is left undone
When our busy day is through.

It isn't the work that kills us
But the strange, indifferent life
Of those who, too, are Christians,
But stand aloof from the strife.

It's seeing the sin and sorrow
That even children must bear;
And saying, 'No' to the people
Who beg for loving care.

It's keeping up the struggle,
That we abroad must live; When beg for loving care.

Without the friendly backing
Which you at home could give.

—Gospel Herald

WHO WE GONNA YELL FOR?

"One! Two! Three! Four!
Three! Two! One! Four!
Who for? What for?
Who we gonna yell for?"

Well, the answer to those questions is determined by whether we're "rooting" for the Scarlets or Golds. It's Volley Ball season on Bryan Hill now, so last Monday we all put up our banners and pushed our teams on to what we hoped would be victory. The score was a tie, but we all felt satisfied that if the sun hadn't been in our eyes or that wrist hadn't started hurting again, our team might have won.

I wonder what we chewed most last Thursday night—our food or our finger nails, as we saw the after dinner speakers from both Scarlet and gold get more and more apprehensive as "speech-time" drew near.

We were entertained immensely by both Miss Marjorie Miller's proof that "Chemistry Students Are Normal" and Miss Mary B. Rogers' great discourse on the "Best State in the Union—Matrimony." Evidently the judges were more convinced of the advantages of matrimony than the normality of Chemists, for Miss Rogers brought the Golds through to victory.

We all, whether Scarlet or Gold, thank our Lord for these times when we can have good Christian fun and, as always, endeavor to do all that we do unto Him.

Representing the missionary activity of Rev. and Mrs. Ralph Toliver, '37 and '38 who are in Szechwan province, China, is the following quotation from the article by Ralph Toliver in the January, 1945 issue of CHINA'S MILLIONS:

“One of our outstations is at a place called the Tao Family Market . . . Mr. Constant, as his Chinese name means, and I had a most interesting time there one market day. . . . We made our way to the pre-selected spot on which we hoped to preach, the village common with its large stone-pillared stage for open-air plays. Before the stage were gathered some three hundred people, holding their standing room in anticipation of the play soon to begin. . . .

“In his dignified manner, the venerable Mr. Sheets, an outstation leader, paid his respects to the troupe manager; no sooner had he mentioned our desires than the manager consented, very courteously. Borrowing a piece of scenery on which to tack our posters, we took possession of the outdoor stage. . . . It was probably the largest crowd I have spoken to in China, and was certainly the most bizarre place and impromptu occasion. . . . At the same time we gave out our tracts so that people, many of whom were doubtless hearing the gospel for the first time in their lives, would have something tangible to take home with them.”

From the Lupton Outstation of the GOOD NEWS MISSION to the Navajo Indians, Mildred Kuntz, '40, writes of the keen interest among the natives as hundreds of them made their way to the different stations for the Christmas programs and gospel messages. Quite a number made professions of faith in the Lord Jesus. Miss Kuntz requests that we “Pray that they will be strengthened and made witnesses for our Lord. Also pray that I might be victorious over the many attacks of Satan.”

J. Holmes Smith, of '40 writes on a Christmas greeting: “Last week our Foreign Mission Committee (Presbyterian Church in the United States) met and appointed me to missionary service in Africa. I hope to leave this country in September.”

Miss Louise Post, '41, is working with the FAITH MOUNTAIN MISSION of Kentucky and sends her greetings to Christian friends thus:

“This year, as in former years, I have rejoiced in Him, anew who came as a Babe to Bethlehem, but it goes beyond that, for I have had the joy of seeing many boys and girls made happy . . .

“It is the custom here to give a small gift to each person on our Sunday School roll . . . Our Sunday School room was decorated for the occasion with gay Christmas colors. Some of the boys brought a huge tree and one whole day was spent in decorating it with handmade decorations. For our customary gift, we gave them something new, but since we had a number of used toys I planned games which required prizes. . . . Then when someone won a game, we gave them the privilege of choosing anything they wanted . . .

“We know that we made the children happy in a material way, but we long that many of them will receive the greatest gift of all, our Saviour, that they may be spiritually happy also.

“My prayer is that He will lead me on to see many souls come to Him in the coming year.”

Miss Ruth Dawson of '40, who is associated with the Cleveland Hebrew Mission and working in Charleston, W. Va., writes in THE TRUMPETER:

“What a glorious day that will be when the whole House of Jacob shall turn unto the Lord their God! My heart has been especially burdened lately for the rabbis, and all those in authority among the Jewish people. How great is their responsibility before God, even though they be blind leaders of the blind!

“The Lord gave a wonderful opportunity to witness to the Orthodox rabbis here, just before Yom Kippur. . . . I told him I believed in the Lord Jesus because He perfectly fulfilled Old Testament prophecies. . . . I asked if he had considered these prophecies, but he considered them misinterpreted and misemphasized.

“Do pray especially for the rabbis, that they might open their hearts to the truths of God’s Word.”

Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Rosenau, '44, who have been accepted by the Mid-Missions board, write in their recent prayer letter:

“We praise Him above all, that He has called us to use our lives for His work in the Oubangi Chari region of French Equatorial Africa. We are looking forward to setting sail for that land as soon as the Lord has furnished the necessary equipment to take out with us. Should the Lord open the doors, we are looking forward to sailing in the early part of March.”

Eugene and his wife, Ernestine (Healan) visited Bryan Hill early in January on their way to Florida to spend a short time with Mrs. Rosenau's family.

Sam's Summary

Dear Folks:

And this month, too, our gift income has exceeded the quota average! You would rejoice to see how your faithful stewardship makes glad the hearts of those who have a special responsibility for financial matters. Pray for them as they translate dollars into lives.

Cordially,

Sam
